Summer Wit & Wisdom

"I wanted a summer filled with porch swings, lemonade and fireflies."
—Tiffany King

"It's not what happens to you, but how you handle it. If life gives you lemons, make lemonade. If the lemons are rotten, take out the seeds and plant them in order to grow new lemons."
—Louise Hay

"The lemon is the symbol of tart refreshment; its color and fragrance lift our spirits before we even taste it."
—Lori Longbotham

"In all my work, I try to say, 'You may be given a load of sour lemons; why not try to make a dozen lemon meringue pies?'"
—Maya Angelou

"If I were really smart, I'd probably spend more time just sitting in the shade drinking lemonade."
—Brian Andreas

"If life wanted to hand me lemons, I was not only going to make lemonade, but I'd use the zest for cookies, plant seeds for future fruit and turn the rind into compost to grow flowers, all the while giving thanks for lemons."
—Bridgette Mongeon

"Fifty lemons are a load for one person, but for fifty persons, they are perfume."
—Ethiopian proverb

"You can either see your life as filled with sour lemons that make your eyes water or filled with zest and energy of the refreshing juice that awakens your taste buds—how you see life is your choice."
